Frequently Asked Questions about Property Taxes

I recently built an addition to my home or built a new home. Should I expect an additional tax bill?

Yes, a supplementary tax notice for newer building permits will be mailed to you at a later date. Depending on the completion date of your addition/home and/or if the home has been assessed, you may receive a tax bill for both the previous and the current year.

I received a tax bill for a property I no longer own. What should I do?

If you no longer own the property, please contact your lawyer.

I recently purchased a property and never received a property tax bill. Am I still responsible for the property taxes?

Yes, new property owners are responsible for payment of property taxes whether or not they received a notice. Please contact your lawyer. Failure to receive a tax notice is not sufficient reason for late payment or non-payment; penalties will be applied.

2024 Tax Levy is eligible for a prepayment discount of 1.5% until August 14, 2024

2024 Tax Due Date: October 31, 2024

Unpaid taxes are subject to a penalty of 1.25% per month added the first business day of every month.
